Co-sponsored by:

Dear Member or Friend of ASQ Illiana Section:

On January 18, the Illiana Section of ASQ will hold a day-long conference entitled "Advancing Quality on the South Shore." The conference will be held at Calumet College of St. Joseph, which is located at 2400 New York Avenue in Whiting, Indiana. Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m., and our program is scheduled to start at 8:30 a.m. It will conclude at 4:00 p.m. We're pleased to note that costs for this day-long event will be underwritten in substantial part by BP and by Calumet College of St. Joseph's Masters in Quality Assurance Program.

We've assembled a distinguished set of speakers, several of whom are published in Quality Progress. They include Kevin Douglas of Federated Signal Corporation, Indiana State Representative Ed Soliday, Calumet College of St. Joseph Assistant Professor Desila Rosetti, Derek Allen of Research International, Attorney John S. Monical, Quality Consultant Ray Mehraban, Ph.D., ASQ Regional Director Kam Gupta, and David Watkins of Omnex, Inc. They'll address a broad range of concerns pertaining to the past, present, and future of the quality profession. The program should prove of interest to quality professionals long established in the field as well as to those who may have assumed responsibilities pertaining to quality more recently. Our program should be of interest to those who work in a number of industries as well. Applications pertaining to healthcare and the service sector will be addressed along with topics familiar to those who work in the manufacturing sector.

Mark your calendar and register now! Our "Advancing Quality on the South Shore" conference on Friday, January 18 should be a great event.
